

SECURE WEB FILE TRANSFER (SWFT)

Powered By Broad River Systems

PRODUCT FUNCTION

Our Web File Transfer product is a set of customizable web pages, and supports secure file transfers over the internet. The Secure Web Mailbox is ideal for clients who feel comfortable using a web browser to securely transfer files.

SPECIFICATIONS

Simple Design

- The Secure Web is designed with clarity and simplicity in mind, allowing for easy uploading and downloading of files

Customizable Features

- Website may be customized with your business's company name, logo, address, phone, email, and technical support contact information
- Website may be customized with colors to remain consistent with your business's branding guidelines
- The web site administrator may grant or deny file download, upload, or deletion rights
- The web site administrator may decide whether or not each client will have their own sub-directory under the upload directory
- The web site administrator may grant clients the ability to view the status of uploaded files
- Website may be customized to support Group Downloads
- Clients may drag-and-drop or browse to multiple files for upload
- Clients may select the precise number of files to be displayed per page
- Website uses native Windows security in order to control user access and permissions
- The web site administrator may configure the automatic logout time and length of the warning message to clients
- The web site administrator may configure the detail of the logs created by the product
- The web site administrator may add a footer to be displayed on each page